Breakout Conferences:

A Sense of Call to Leadership

Today's Christian women have a unique opportunity to lead this next generation of women and our nation back to God. If you're feeling God has something more for you, join the discussion. Participants will receive a link for a free eBook from Christian Women's Leadership Center.

A Well-Balanced Life

There is a connection between physical and emotional well-being. Discover how to identify and resolve the most common stressors that rob us of our joy and health.

Abiding in Christ as a Leader

As a leader in ministry, it can be easy to find ourselves frazzled, stressed and approaching burnout. Being effective, organized and persuasive are all great traits for leaders, but what does it look like to abide in Christ and how does it affect our leadership?

Facing Your Leadership Phobias

When God calls you to leadership, you may not feel equipped, but lead you must! Take off your mask, verbalize your why, strengthen your knees, and say, "Here am I! Send me!"

Immeasurably More

How do you learn a language that no one has ever learned? Hear stories of how God is at work in amazing ways to reach unreached people through really challenging circumstances.

Listening to God in the Midst of Chaos

Do you sometimes feel like there is so much crazy that you can't figure out what God is doing? Let's come together and look at what happens when we really focus on hearing His voice over the chaos screaming at us and how that can affect our witness.

Living By the Book

Come explore a simple three question method to gain fresh insights into scripture. Together we will observe, interpret and apply God's Word.

Living the Gospel in New Orleans

Hear from one of our NAMB Church Planters about what it's like to plant a church in New Orleans. Learn how Christmas Backpacks make a difference and help them reach those in need.

Mission-Minded Discipleship

Mission minded people know the importance of evangelism AND discipleship. If the strategy is only to hear, then the gospel will not spread. Let's dive into what it looks like if we are disciples who make disciples who live on mission!

Missions Where You Are

There are around a half million Hispanics in Alabama. Come hear how God is working and how He can use you to reach them for Christ.

More Than a Game: Sports and the Gospel

How do you begin connecting with unreached people? Hear how sports influences all levels of society and provides inroads to engage unreached people groups.

Nothing Less: Engaging Kids in a Lifetime of Faith

In today's culture, how can we help kids know God and continue to stay in a growing, thriving relationship with Him? Hear about the top ten influencers of spiritual health, how to avoid negative influences and ways to focus on what's most important.

Out of Exile

What formed and shaped the woman who in turn molded and shaped Woman's Missionary Union? Join Rosalie Hunt as she shares stories and insight into the life of the beloved Fannie Heck, who served for fifteen years as president of National WMU.

Partnering Well

What are best practices for partnering with our missionaries, both in North America and overseas? Discover practical ways to make an eternal difference.

Prayer is the Battle

Many of you have been battling in prayer over the last year for Pakistanis to come to saving faith in Jesus Christ. God is at work among our missionaries and among the lost! Come and hear how God is working, and how you can join in this battle.

Returning to the Front Porch: Hospitable Community

Have you ever wondered how to reach the next generations? Come explore characteristics of Generation Z and Millennials and how to effectively involve them in ministry and discipleship.
